HARLOWTON STUDENT CHOSEN AS UM PEER ADVISER

MISSOULA--

A group of University of Montana—Missoula students has been selected to help peers find their way on campus. These students will serve as University College academic peer advisers for the 1997-98 school year.

Among the students chosen for the program is Whitney Reynolds of Harlowton, a sophomore studying business/marketing. She is the daughter of Mardi Reynolds of Harlowton and Gary Reynolds of Moab, Utah.

Academic peer advisers are selected through an application and interview process. Students who are selected possess exceptional leadership, communication and interpersonal skills. Peer advisers are high-achieving and self-motivated students.

Over the course of the year, peer advisers are responsible for advising fellow college students about course selection, general education and major requirements, and resource information.
